

All 32 checkpoint probes: effect of matching update length

Each point is a mean over eight shared training triples. Negative favors adaptation over the zero-inner SGD update. Diagonal: unchanged mean effect after norm matching. Panels use separate scales. All declared checkpoint probes are shown; these are local measurements, not held-out or multiseed results.